Sunday 29th June 2025 | Solemnity of Sts Peter & Paul (Apostles) - Year C | Issue #26

FEAST DAY OF STS PETER & PAUL

Peter: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Jesus: "You are Peter, (rock) and upon this rock I will build my Church"

Today, the feast of Saints Peter and Paul is also like Pentecost. It celebrates the missionary endeavour of the Church to the non-Jewish world with Paul as the first protagonist and the historical figurehead. It is also about Peter, through whom Christ's authority continues down to our Pope Leo 14th.

The Gospels show Peter as someone often only interested in himself and not being either polite nor diplomatic. He talks only forgiving 7 times and denying three times that he knows Jesus. He protests Jesus' foretelling of his own death, walks on water, doubts and sinks. He cuts off the servant's ear in the garden and runs away when Jesus is taken to be crucified.

He is so human and weak, yet Jesus chooses him. He is a great comfort to us mortals who are also weak and flawed.

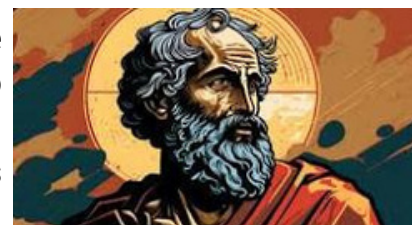

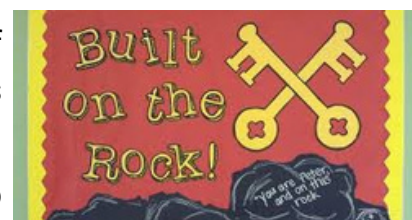

Paul is shown to be an amazing guy. Before he converted to Jesus, he was the arch enemy of Christianity. He was also a very well-prepared religious thinker in the Jewish tradition. When he became Christian, he understood very easily the teachings of Jesus. Passionate, he became an apostle of the Gentiles and a great missionary.

Not accepted wholeheartedly by the first apostles for his past history he was still a force to be reckoned with. He was short of stature, pugnacious and like Peter, very human but in another way. His letters explain so much of what is in the gospels and unpack so much of what Jesus taught.

Finally, both finished up in Rome, Paul beheaded, and Peter crucified upside, both in the year 64.

The permanent place of the Papacy began in Rome. So today, as we remember Peter and Paul, we remember too the long line of popes who have received the authority of Jesus to head the Church.

Today on social media, there is much said about Leo 14th: what he is saying, who he is etc. But in fact, today is not about Pope Leo 14th. It is all about Jesus establishing his church and entrusting it to very human and weak men like Peter then all the popes and today's Leo himself who merely exists to see that Jesus' teaching is known, safe guarded, and lived.

COLLECTION OF ST. PETER'S PENCE: A GESTURE TO SUPPORT THE POPE IN HIS MISSION

To all of you, brothers and sisters ... throughout the world: we want to be a synodal Church, a Church that moves forward, a Church that always seeks peace, that always seeks charity, that always seeks to be close above all to those who are suffering.

Leo p.p.xiv

On June 29, which this year falls on the last Sunday of June – the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul.

On this occasion, the traditional Peter's Pence collection takes place.

This is a concrete way to support the Holy Father in his mission of service to the universal Church.

Peter's Pence is a gesture of communion and participation in the Pope's mission to proclaim the Gospel, promote peace, and spread Christian charity.

As every year, every offering – large or small – will support the Holy Father in his ministry and in his charitable activities in response to emergencies and needs around the world.

Envelopes are available in the Atrium.
